The Pickens Baptist Association

The Pickens Baptist association met with the church at Pleasant Grove on Wednesday, October 11. The appointee for the introductory sermon being absent, the association requested Rev. H. K. Williams of Easley to preach, and did so to the delight and edification of the people. The association was organized by the election of Rev. J. E. Foster moderator and J. A. Robinson clerk. The good people of Pleasant Grove covered themselves with glory for their unbounded hospitality. Such a dinner as they served you seldom see.

In the afternoon several good reports were read and discussed by the brethren. Rev. W. E. Nelson reported on state of religion. Prof. R. T. Hallum on christian education, and Prof. J. A. Robinson on religious periodicals. Capt. J. A. Griffin, Hon. Joe Medlin, C. E. Robinson, Rev. H. K. Williams, Rev. W. E. Nelson, Prof. J. A. Robinson, Prof. R. T. Hallum and Rev. D. W. Hiott all made talks in the afternoon.

Thursday was the most largely attended session of the association. Dr. David M. Ramsay of Greenville preached an able sermon in the morning. In the afternoon the following representatives from Six Mile academy made talks: Rev. Mr. Garner, principal, and Charles Atkinson and Thomas E. Durham, students. Fifty dollars in cash and subscription was raised for the academy. Three wagons loaded with Six Mile students attended the association Thursday and they sang several songs. They left in the afternoon for Table Rock, where they enjoyed an outing until Saturday.

R. A. Hester made the report on aged ministers, and a report on the W. M. U. work was made by Mrs. J. M. Stewart, which was very commendable. Dr. Ramsay made a talk on behalf of christian education, which was interesting and was well received. Rev. Ben G. Field made a favorable report on temperance, and the session adjourned for the day.

The churches of the Pickens association ought to insist on their pastors attending meetings of the association. The first day at Pleasant Grove only one pastor in the entire association was present, and he was the moderator, Rev. J. E. Foster. What can an army do when the generals and captains are all in the tents or at home on furloughs?

Pleasant Grove was a pleasant and picturesque place for the Pickens association to meet. A beautiful church building situated on top of a high hill, in the land of the Sky commanding a view of Table Rock and Casar's Head hotel, makes delightful scenery. It was an inspiration to be among these hills and have fellowship with the most hospitable people on earth. The next association goes to Griffin church.

Six Mile News

We are glad to say this is the best year so far that the Six Mile school has had, being 28 boarding pupils, nine of which are preparing to preach the gospel. The pupils and teacher of the school started on their annual trip to Table Rock Thursday, the 12th, for a three days' stay.

Married, at the home of and by Rev. C. B. Atkinson, Mr. Hagood Childress to Miss Ora Ferguson. The many friends of both wish them a long and happy life.

Rev. Jackson filled the appointment of Rev. C. B. Atkinson at Shiloh church Saturday night and Sunday morning, the 7th and 8th.

Jim Davis spent the week-end at his home near West Union.

Six Mile boys' prospects are bright for winning trophies in track work this year.

Prof. Garner and John Corbin attended Twelve Mile association the first week in October.

The school is greatly honored with its literary society which is doing good work with Jackson Stansell as president.

Nicholas Stansell visited his brother, Jackson, at this place Saturday and Sunday.

Has it ever occurred to you that a worn-out range waste smoney in burning too much fuel and spoiling food? A range expert who will have charge of the Majestic Demonstration during the week commencing October 23 will show you how the Majestic range cuts down household expenses. Pickens Mercantile and Lumber Co.

Local and Personal

Mrs. J. L. O. Thompson was a Greenville shopper recently.

Mrs. G. R. Hendricks left last Saturday for Atlanta, where she will spend a week visiting relatives.

We call your attention to the ad of Folger, Thornley & Co., in this issue. It will pay you to read it.

Mrs. Charlie Bowen and children joined Mr. Bowen in Central last week, and they will make their home there in the future. They are indeed a loss to our town.

The Ladies' Cottage prayer meeting will meet with Mrs. R. L. Davis Friday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock. All ladies are invited to attend these meetings, especially mothers.

Mrs. Frank McFall entertained the Entre Nous club last Wednesday afternoon. A delightful afternoon was spent by all present and tempting refreshments served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hagood and family will leave Pickens in a few weeks to make their home in Easley. Pickens people regret very much to lose them, but glad they will be near.

We are requested to announce that there will be a birthday dinner given at the home of Mrs. R. E. Anderson on the 24th of this month to which all relatives and friends are invited.

Miss Lorena Taylor successfully underwent an operation for appendicitis in an Atlanta hospital last week, and it will be good news to her many friends to know that she is rapidly recovering.

Miss Belle Yongue entertained most delightfully the U. D. C. last Friday afternoon. After the program the hostess, assisted by her sister, Miss Henrietta Yongue, served cream and cake, followed by coffee and cheese straws.

The Pickens train making the first trip Friday morning, carrying the passengers bound for the circus in Greenville, was derailed near Atrial crossing. No one was hurt and the engine was loaded with passengers and proceeded on to Easley.

The friends of Garland Seaborn, who is in the Navy, will regret to learn that he had the misfortune to get his arm broken recently. As was pitching in a game of baseball for the navy team and in throwing the ball broke a bone in his arm between the shoulder and elbow.

In the notice of the Pickens county singing convention in last week's paper the dates should be October 21 and 22, instead of 28 and 29. The convention will be held with the Baptist church at the Easley mill in Easley, and all singers and lovers of music are cordially invited.

Dock Pace, who has been running a grocery store, cold drink and fruit stand in Pickens for several years, has sold out. S. L. and D. B. Adams are the buyers and they will move their stock of groceries from the Pickens mill and continue business at Pace's old stand.

W. M. Bolding, a good citizen of Pea Ridge was in town Monday on business. Mr. Bolding is looking hale and hearty for a man of his age. He says that while cotton is not the best he has ever seen on Pea Ridge, it is fairly good, and that he has gathered some of the finest corn this year that he has ever seen.

We are requested to announce that there will be an Old Folks singing at Mountain View church the first Sunday in November at 10 o'clock. Everybody is cordially invited to come and bring well filled baskets and bring Christian Harmony song books. The young folks are especially invited to come and bring their song books.

It will be good news to the many friends of Miss Nina Griffin to know that she has sufficiently recovered from her recent illness to be removed from the city hospital in Greenville to her home on Central route 3. Her many friends hope she will continue to improve until she has fully regained her usual good health.

Experience in thousands of homes has proved that the Majestic is the one range that gives real satisfaction and cuts down the cost of living. An expert from the Majestic factory will be at our store during the week commencing October 23, an will show you why the Majestic is the only range for you. Pickens Mercantile & Lumber Co.

The marriage of George B. Hamilton of Easley to Miss Ruby Evangeline Williams of North Augusta, which occurred at the home of the bride on the 9th inst., was an event of unusual interest on account of the popularity of the contracting parties. The bride formerly taught in the graded school at Easley and is an accomplished young woman. The bridegroom is a member of the firm of E. L. & G. B. Hamilton, furniture dealers of Easley. The Sentinel joins many other friends in wishing for them a long and happy life.

If you feel that you are in need of glasses go to the Pickens Drug Co., on Saturday, October 21. A representative of the G. L. Hall Optical Co., who is especially trained in measuring and examining the eyes and fitting glasses, will be there. No charge is made for examination and every pair of glasses will be guaranteed. See their ad.

R. L. Boggs, Jr., the 5-year-old son of R. L. Boggs of the Glenwood mill village of Easley, was run over last Friday afternoon by an automobile driven by J. M. Garrett of Liberty. The boy is reported to be resting well and his injuries are not thought to be of a serious nature. The driver of the automobile was arrested and lodged in the Pickens jail, but is now out on bond.

Julius H. Cobb, who was convicted in the Federal court in Greenville last week on a charge of sending an obscene letter through the mails, was sentenced by Judge Johnson last Wednesday to serve one year and one day and to pay a fine of $500. He has been carried to Atlanta to begin serving his sentence in the Federal prison there. Cobb has been living in Easley for several years and ran a bicycle shop there.

J. P. O'Dell of near Liberty sold six bales of long staple cotton in Greenville last week at 24 cents per pound, the six bales bringing him $750.96. Harmon Williams, a prosperous and progressive young farmer of near Easley, sold six bales recently that brought him $676.32. He lives between Liberty and Easley. It is said that there will be between 500 and 1000 bales of Columbia long staple cotton produced in Pickens county this year.

Mrs. Hattie Robinson Brooks, wife of Mr. Elbert Brooks, died at the home of her father, Mr. Joseph E. Robinson, about one and a half miles north of the city, on the morning of the 26th of September, after an illness of several weeks. She is survived by her husband and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Robinson, one sister, Mrs. Leila Smith, and two brothers, Robert and Jodie Robinson. Funeral and interment conducted by Rev. H. K. Williams, took place at Cedar Rock church on the day following her death. She was about 25 years of age and had been a member of Cedar Rock church for several years—Easley Progress.

Edwin L. Bolt & Company

Are showing the largest lines of Dry Goods, Shoes, Clothing, Millinery, etc., ever brought to Easley. We do not say this in a boastful way, but we believe it is a fact. On every hand today you hear high prices and scarcity of merchandise. Probably this is true with the majority of stores, but it is not with Edwin L. Bolt & Company. They have the goods, and with the small exception of a few items in SHOES and PIECE GOODS the prices are the same as you have been accustomed to pay heretofore. It will certainly pay you to come many miles to do your fall trading at this store. We will not only save you money but will have a large stock to select from.

We have more than $30,000 (thirty thousand dollars) worth of reasonable merchandise in stock at the present time, bought during the early part of July, when cotton was around the 10c mark. Today cotton is near 16c, an advance of about 50 per cent, and all kinds of DRY GOODS have advanced accordingly. See prices below and come and see for yourself:
